

MANY CLAIMANTS.

A Dead Millionaire Whose Liables Have Been Legion.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11.—There is a probability of a lively contest over the estate of Thomas Blythe, the millionaire, who died suddenly last week after taking a bath. Blythe was an Englishman who came into possession of valuable property on Market street years ago, and whose wealth at the time of his death was estimated to be $4,000,000. He was fond of women, and several years ago a dashing young woman, named Nellie Firmin, with whom he had been living, brought suit against him, claiming to be his wife. The trial caused a local sensation, on account of Blythe's wealth and eccentricities, but he easily proved that he had never been married to her. For the last five years Blythe has been living with a woman who went by the name of Allie Dickinson. She is a beautiful brunette, very stylish, but Blythe never called her his wife. He simply introduced her to his friends as "Allie." He died in her arms, and she attended the funeral. Now she comes in with a claim that she was married to him, and demanding half of his property. What makes the case more tangled is that another woman, named Firmin, also will put in a claim for a share of the estate. The only real heir is a young girl now in England, the sole issue of the millionaire's marriage years ago. Besides the real estate in this city, deceased had large interests in Sonora and Southern California which are valuable.

BURIED ALIVE.

Seventeen Men Crushed Under a Falling Building.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 11.—Yesterday morning a large building at the north-west corner of Church and State streets fell with a crash. The side wall facing Church street had been erected this winter. It is supposed the mortar was frozen, and that the warm weather of yesterday loosened the bricks and caused the fall. There were seventeen men at work in the building. An alarm was sounded, which brought out the firemen and police, who are working hard clearing away the debris. The names of those found in the ruins are R. L. Worden, Wm. Ashford, Frederick Kohler, S. Burr, W. G. Gould, R. L. Brown, Ransom Porter, Anthony Danklepiel, and Matthew Peard. The latter is dead, and two of the others are fatally injured. The owner of the building was on the roof at the time it fell, and was severely injured. Those who are in the basement are probably killed.

Tariff Vexations.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—It begins to look as though an interpreter is needed to handle each and every section of the new tariff law. Doubts exist as to what is meant by most of the terms used relating to time, place, quality, quantity, and the dates upon which laws shall take effect. The several departments are being called upon with painful frequency to render decisions upon every conceivable problem. In passing a tariff law Congress should have adopted a key for it, or made diagrams for each section.

Entombed Alive.

NORWAY, Mich., April 11.—About ninety feet of ground at the Nellbridge mine caved in yesterday. The engine house, in which were nine men, and all the mine machinery, and boiler, went down a distance of from 1,000 to 2,000 feet. All the men were either killed outright, or buried alive, except Ed. Wickes, who went down 100 feet, and then remained on top of the debris, with his leg broken at the thigh, and one of his ribs fractured. His recovery is doubtful.

Train Ditched by a Broken Rail.

EAST SAGINAW, Mich., April 11.—The Detroit Express on the Flint and Pere Marquette railroad, due here last evening, left the track at the county line, and all the coaches but one were ditched. John Hewitt, the engineer, and Robert Rhodes, the fireman, were killed. The cause of the accident was a broken rail.

Wedlock and Death.

MARIETTA, O., April 11.—James Flannery, a young man living in Harmar, shot himself through the bowels this morning and cannot live. He was married on Monday, and had been drinking heavily ever since, which is supposed to be the cause of the suicide.

Shot While Asleep.

ST. MARTINVILLE, La., April 11.—At 2 o'clock this morning at Keystone plantation, Theodore Robertson, alias Joseph, colored, shot with a musket and killed his half-brother, George Robertson, aged 14 years, while the latter was asleep in bed.

Poisoned by Eating Wild Parsnips.

MONTICELLO, Ill., April 10.—John, Lena and Thomas Hiltz, children of Charles Hiltz, a farmer living four miles from this place, have been poisoned by eating wild raw parsnip roots. John died shortly after eating the root. The other two lie in a precarious condition. Their ages are twelve, fourteen and six respectively.

A Little Wanderer Killed.

BEREA, O., April 11.—A boy, aged possibly thirteen years, was killed here last night while trying to steal a ride on a freight train. He has not been identified. He had a photograph of himself in his pocket, but nothing to indicate his name or where he belonged.

Gresham Takes the Oath of Office.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Judge W. Q. Gresham arrived at the Postoffice Department at 11 o'clock to-day, accompanied by J. W. Foster, Minister to Spain. He proceeded at once to the Postmaster General's room, where, in the presence of the Postoffice officials, he was sworn in by the venerable Judge Lawrence of the Department. He took the iron clad oath, and is the thirty-first Postmaster General, beginning with Samuel Osmond. Judge Lawrence has sworn in every Postmaster General since Cave Johnson, of Kentucky, in 81. The clerks of the Department were then introduced to Mr. Gresham.

Tit for Tat.

VICKSBURG, Miss., April 11.—George Smith, who killed a young negro preacher named Albert Boykin, was shot and killed while trying to escape yesterday.

Posey County Heard From.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Judge William P. Elson, of Posey county, Ind., is a candidate for the District Judgeship, vice Gresham. So far there have been about twenty names mentioned for the position, Peter S. Kennedy, of Crawfordsville, being probably the last one spoken of.

Departs this Life.

ASHTABULA, O., April 11.—Judge Lee, a leading lawyer in this county, who recently lost heavily through bad financial ventures, suicided last night by taking laudanum.

Sudden Death.

MORROW, O., April 11.—Captain A. C. Donnelly, the well known steamboat owner, died suddenly about noon yesterday at his home. While riding on his horse, he was seized with a fit of apoplexy, and falling from the animal struck the ground a dead man. Captain Donnelly was well known in all the river towns from Pittsburg to New Orleans.

For Poisoning His Wife.

WORCESTER, Mass., April 11.—Edward R. was to-day sentenced to be hung on June 15 for poisoning his wife.

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 11.—River 10 feet 6 inches and falling.
WHEELING, W. Va., April 11.—River 16 feet 4 inches and falling.
CINCINNATI, April 11.—River 42 feet 6 inches and rising.
LOUISVILLE, April 11.—River 21 feet 6 inches in canal, and 1 foot 6 inches in chute.
EVANSVILLE, April 11.—River 38 feet 0 inch and stationary.
CAIRO, Ill., April 11.—River 43 feet 4 inches and rising.
